The Mine Owners of Colorado furnished Gov. Peabody an elegantly appointed palace car for his speaking tour round the state during the campaign. He spoke from the rear platform and, having a guilty conscience, had several sharpshooters standing by his side as a protection from imaginary danger.

The beauty and the costliness of competition is indicated by the advertising bills that are paid each year by those who strive to get ahead of their competitors and thus escape bankruptcy. Statistics show that two billions of dollars, that is, two thousand millions, are spent in the United States yearly to meet the expense of advertising. It's a costly system!

Speaking of the American movement, London Justice says: "All appearances point to an immense vote at the forthcoming elections. That America, as the land where capitalist development has gone the farthest, should take its proper place in the International Social-Democratic movement, is a fact to be greeted with all sincerity. Let us hope that Debs will reap the results of the untiring efforts of himself and the party generally."

A justifiable war is at best simply a wretched necessity. A man who takes another's life in self defense does not go round boasting of it, but although forced to have committed the act, he always feels a sense of regret and shame when he thinks of it. It should be the same with war, but war is always glorified, even in the schools. War would not be so glorified if it were not for the constant effort in that direction made by the ruling class who know that otherwise volunteers to fight their bloody wars for them would not be so easily secured.

What's happened! The Million, of Haverhill, Mass., has changed hands and has, for the time being at least, dropped all its blatant editorials against Social-Democracy, even to the very silly "Questions that Have Never been Answered by Socialists"—all of which have been answered, as a matter of fact, over and over in these columns. It appears that Gordon is out. Perhaps the Parry crowd intend to use him in some new field where his dishonest nature has not been exposed. The anti-Socialist sheet that the Parry-sites planted in Milwaukee took a great part of its stuff from the files of the Million. It is the policy of the Parry people, assisted by some worldly clergymen, to plant such sheets in cities where Socialism has become strong, but as the Million has been at it without results in Massachusetts, they are simply burning up their money.

Mayor Rose, Milwaukee's gang mayor, is greatly perturbed over the Social-Democratic gains. Hear him: "Social Democrats may elect a mayor in 1906," the mayor said yesterday. "There is danger in this. I believe it will be necessary to take concerted action to prevent it."

"In this election, Social Democrats cut into the Democratic forces to a greater extent than into the Republican vote last spring. It is going to be the big question. It always has been my policy to do all in my power to induce manufacturers to come to Milwaukee. With this tremendous increase in the Socialist vote, manufacturers will refuse to come. They will not invest a dollar in Milwaukee. Everywhere I go throughout the country I hear remarks concerning the Social-Democratic strength in Milwaukee."

"We will have to disintegrate their movement. Hereafter, they have gone about the city preaching their heresies without demerol or contradictions from any one. We must show the fallacy of their viewpoint."

The attitude of the mayor shows that Democrats in Milwaukee fear defeat at the hands of the Socialists in the next municipal campaign. This also was shown a month ago in the school board when A. J. Grundman, director from the Twentieth ward, member of the Milwaukee city Democracy and a close friend of Mayor Rose, vigorously opposed on the school board floor granting Socialist children the privilege of using school buildings.

But the silliest wall of all is the claim that manufacturers will stay away from the city. It is made with a purpose, of course, with a politician's craft. If manufacturers will read the official proceedings of the Milwaukee common council, they will find that the Socialist aldermen have not stood in the way of profit-making capitalists. On the contrary the Social-Democrats want the capitalist system to run its course. At most they have opposed illegal privileges to business men, and this needs no defense. Business men ought to be able to exist without corrupting legislation or securing special privileges over other citizens.

New York's Remarkable Social-Democratic Increase in Vote!

THE S. L. P. NOW OFF THE MAP!

Returns Already Indicate a Vote in the United States of Six Hundred and Fifty Thousand!

TERRE HAUTE, IND., Nov. 9.—Eugene V. Debs, candidate on the Social Democratic ticket for the presidency, writes as follows about the election: "The Social Democratic vote in every part of the country has been enormously increased. My advisers are that Cook county, Ill., will give us at least 45,000 votes. The state of Illinois alone will probably cast a larger Socialist vote this year than was cast in all the United States four years ago. We have made remarkable gains in Milwaukee and elected worthy comrades to the legislature. It is too early to make an estimate of the total national vote, but enough is known to warrant the statement, that from this time forward the Republicans will have the Social-Democratic party to reckon with, and that the coming alignment will be between the Republican party representing the capitalist interests, and the Social-Democratic party representing the working classes. As for the Democratic party, the eastern capitalists hit harder than they intended, and it can hardly be pulled together again, to serve as a twin to the Republican party to divide the working classes."

"Twice has the Bourbon Democracy of the south coupled up with the radical western wing of the party, and gone down to defeat. It then quit the radical element, and embraced the conservative element of the east, and has now been knocked in the head harder than before, and this ought to finish this moribund aggregation that has no principles and is only held together by its appetite for spoils."

"We will not see Mr. Roosevelt extract the fangs and silence the rattles of the trusts, and we will also see with what effect he will wage the word of prosperity in the face of the impending industrial depression."

"From now on, every move on the political chess board, whether so designed or not, will be in the interest of Socialism, and promote the growth of the Socialist movement, and it is entirely possible that in four years more the Social-Democratic party may sweep the United States."

Eugene V. Debs

NATIONAL.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Very incomplete returns justify estimate SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND TOTAL VOTE IN THE UNITED STATES.

Debs had 98,417 votes in the United States in 1900. Illinois leads with at least seventy-five thousand, Chicago giving forty-two, higher than any other city. Two assemblymen elected.

New York incomplete fifty thousand, Socialist Labor Party losing official standing.

Milwaukee 20,000 for Debs, five assemblymen, one senator elected. Berger and Gaylord increased vote two thousand in congressional districts, running ahead of Democrats.

Estimate Wisconsin, California, Minnesota, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, thirty to forty thousand each. Missouri, Massachusetts, twenty thousand. Twenty other states will range from twenty-five hundred to fifteen thousand. Among cities showing the largest increases are Chicago, New York, Milwaukee, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Omaha, Jersey City, Newark, Minneapolis, Youngstown, San Francisco, Salt Lake, Spokane, Portland, Oregon, Baltimore, Terre Haute, Indianapolis, Evansville, San Diego, Oakland, New Haven, Davenport.

WISCONSIN.

Out of the Milwaukee election the Social-Democrats landed five assemblymen and one state senator, as well as a large increase in their voting strength. In Milwaukee county about twenty thousand votes were polled by them and so great was their strength that Debs ran 900 votes ahead of Parker in the city and 200 in the county! Our party made a gain of about 4,500 in the city of Milwaukee. This is a remarkable showing as the Spring vote, which is used for comparison in this instance, was not a strict showing of party strength, but to some extent due to the uncovering of graft in the city and county on the part of both the capitalist parties, with about an even showing. This non-Socialist vote has been maintained, however, and an increase of nearly five thousand votes added to it! No wonder we feel jubilant! The non-Socialist vote of the Spring has been converted into real Socialist strength and still further increased in spite of the national Roosevelt wave.

The six men elected are: Jacob Rummel in the Sixth District for state senator; William Aldridge in the Fifth Assembly District; Frederick Brockhausen in the Eleventh Assembly District; Edmund J. Berner in the Ninth Assembly District; Herman G. Hansen in the Fifteenth Assembly District; and August L. Strehlow in the Sixteenth Assembly District. Comrade Rummel is a foreman in a cigar factory, Comrade Aldridge is a machinist and a union man, Comrade Brockhausen is a cigarmaker and state secretary of the Wisconsin State Federation of Labor, Comrade Berner is a cigarmaker and a union man, Comrade Hansen is a tanner and an official in the Tanners' Union, and Comrade Strehlow is a painter and a union man. All are measurably young men and full of the young blood that political life is so much in need of. They come from the people and will do our cause proud.

One aftermath of the campaign will be a plentiful crop of post-election prosecutions by the Social-Democrats directed against election officials and others alleged to be guilty of violating various provisions of election laws.

Chief among these cases will be those against the election officials of the Twentieth ward, who failed and refused to give the Social-Democratic party the representation on the election boards as ordered by Judge Belden.

A Characteristic Contrast.

Democratic Candidate Hango Idly Round the Hotel Pfister and Milwaukee Club, while the Social-Democratic Candidate works at Productive Labor.

Perhaps no one interested in politics spent election day with more apparent unconcern than Milwaukee's two candidates for governor, George W. Peck, the Democratic candidate, and William Arnold, who headed the Social-Democratic ticket.

Mr. Peck followed the usual routine of his daily affairs, except in a few instances. At 9 o'clock he voted in the First ward. He visited his friends at the Pfister hotel and the Plankinton house and spent some time at the Milwaukee club house. He also spent part of the day at the Democratic state headquarters and last night went there to receive the election returns.

Mr. Arnold, who is a printer, worked as usual throughout the day. He bore his accustomed smile as he went about his work with ink-stained hands, and never once appeared concerned as to how the election would go. Had any of his fellow workers been unaware of the fact that Mr. Arnold was a candidate for the office of governor of Wisconsin, he would never have guessed it.—

aggregation that has no principles and is only held together by its appetite for spoils.

"We will not see Mr. Roosevelt extract the fangs and silence the rattles of the trusts, and we will also see with what effect he will wage the word of prosperity in the face of the impending industrial depression."

"From now on, every move on the political chess board, whether so designed or not, will be in the interest of Socialism, and promote the growth of the Socialist movement, and it is entirely possible that in four years more the Social-Democratic party may sweep the United States."

Eugene V. Debs

In the Fourth precinct the man appointed was selected by the Social-Democrats, while in the Third precinct, where the demands of the Social-Democrats were at first refused, it was later discovered that one of the election officials was under 21 years of age. His removal left a vacancy which was filled with a Social-Democrat.

There was rough times in the Twelfth ward, which the Social-Democrats overturned. Ward Foreman Ziarnek, a Rose plugger, who was a candidate for the state senate, organized a gang to pick quarrels with the Socialists, but the latter were warned and were on their guard. As it was, Comrade Aldridge just escaped with a blow on the neck. Ziarnek was furious at his defeat and one of his first acts was to eject a club of young men who occupied the basement of his saloon, because they did not "plug" hard enough for him.

The early returns were very favorable to the Social-Democrats, who were assembled at Liedertafel hall. They indicated the election of Comrade Berger to congress. In fact the Associated Press sent it out that he was elected, and this resulted in his receiving a deluge of congratulatory telegrams from all over the country. Commenting on the election Comrade Berger said the following in the daily press:

"Stafford, at least in Milwaukee, had a very close call. It is evident, from a scrutiny of the returns from the Milwaukee portion of the Fifth district, that Stafford was elected by a combination between the stalwart Republicans and Democrats."

"The Social-Democrats have made a gain in the city of Milwaukee of about 4,500 over their vote of last spring. They have elected five members of the state assembly and one state senator. I am satisfied with the excellent showing made by the party, and I believe that full returns will show that we cast 20,000 votes in this city."

"Two points are not to be forgotten: Our vote is almost a straight vote, there being almost no variation in our vote from one end of the ticket to the other. This assures me that we polled only votes which belong to the party. The other point is that we are now either first or second party in a majority of the precincts of the city, which will give us representation in such precincts on the election boards at the next election."

One of the surprises of the election was the remarkable gain in the old, solid Democratic 14th ward. The Poles are getting their eyes open. The party made big gains in all the wards, even in the Tenth, where the Social-Democrats failed to elect an assemblyman, although their vote was increased.

Archbishop Messmer stayed away from a bishop's funeral in Cincinnati to vote.

Lincoln J. Steffens, the author of the Enemies of the Republic articles in McClures, now gives us his remedy for the graft impulse that the politicians have brought over from business into politics. Verily, the mountain has labored and brought forth a ridiculous little mouse! His remedy is to vote for "good men." It would be better to vote for good principles represented by good men. Good principle is a safer anchorage than "good" men, every time!

Archbishop Sebastian Messmer has something to explain, if he hopes to keep the respect of the working classes of Wisconsin. Several weeks ago, during the national campaign that is just over, there suddenly appeared in Milwaukee a man named Mather, with the announcement that he intended to start a labor paper to fight the Social-Democrats. It was evident that he had been sent here by someone or as a result of a conspiracy of certain enemies of the working people to try to head off in their determination to fight for a social system under which the results of toil would go to those who toiled. Mather landed in town in a drunken condition and was flushed with someone's money. He hung around saloons and flashed his roll of bills like a man who wasn't used to having so much money. Finally he started up a sheet which he called the Labor World, full of the most contemptible slanders of Social-Democrats and Socialism, and for type setting and press work alone it clearly cost him over $125.00 an issue. No advertisements were run to provide an income from that source and the paper agreed to present a year's subscription to every person paying three cents for a single issue. So that it was clear that the paper was not run as a business undertaking and that it was not Mather's own money that was paying the bills. Then it developed that Mather had been sent to Milwaukee by Parry and his pirate crew, with Quarles as the Milwaukee representative, assisted by Thomas Neacy, one of the proprietors of the Filer & Stowell company, a low specimen of a human being, one of the meanest labor drivers in the city, and the president of the Voters League. The paper announced as its platform the principles of the Citizens' Alliance. Parry-site business men of Milwaukee were known to be helping to put up the cash, but they were too foxy to advertise their businesses in the sheet; they were working a gum shoe campaign and carrying out Parry's orders. Milwaukee had developed as the center of Social-Democracy in the United States, had achieved the work of getting the people of the city educated up in the principles of Socialism and the example, the "Milwaukee method," was likely to be followed in other parts of the country, with disastrous results to the capitalists' politicians and office holders. Hence Milwaukee was picked out in order to grapple with the political uprising of the working people. But Mather was not cautious. In his drunken moments he made a boastful parade of the checks he was receiving, and cashed them in saloons in the presence of others. Several of them that were seen bore Thomas Neacy's signature. Then there was a contribution, according to his own confession, from John I. Beggs, president of the Street Railway company, of $1,500—which shows how much the street railway crowd would like to have Socialism wiped off the map, and other firms we will not take the trouble to specify. And then—! another contributor WAS ARCHBISHOP MESSMER!! An archbishop who claims to represent the ultra moral interests, helping to run a disreputable sheet, filled with slander and filthy eriminations! A man of God so bent on getting the Social-Democrats from their robber hold on government that he could not even notice that his church was being used by disreputable politicians to try to elect Gambling House Proprietor John McCoy sheriff in the interests of the corporation bribe givers of the city, and in sending Disreputable Peter Somers, the go-between the gambling houses and houses of prostitution and the Rose machine, to represent the Milwaukee district in Congress—both McCoy and Somers, by the way, being "good" Catholics. Let Archbishop Messmer tell the people of Milwaukee why he has been so exercised over the false stories as to Socialist morality, and so silent over the undoubted immorality of McCoy and Somers, although McCoy's own priest, Father Roche, when McCoy was running for the city council in the Eighteenth ward last Spring came out courageously and denounced him from the pulpit of Holy Rosary church!

Well, were YOU a voting partner of Parry last Tuesday!

One of the features of the Milwaukee campaign was the debate between Victor L. Berger and his Democratic opponent for congress, Mr. Dopp of Waukesha. The debate took place in the Casino in Waukesha, and was a victory for Comrade Berger. The Democratic debater had no grasp of the philosophy of Social-Democracy and had to rely on the conception which capitalist editors have been stuffing the people with these many years. He even resorted to the Socialism-will-destroy-the-family assertion, and backed up other ridiculous arguments by reading long extracts from Marx, which wrenched away from the context amounted to misrepresentation of the great thinker. Comrade Berger had easy sailing in showing up the muddleheadedness and the absurdity of Dopp's statements and did it in a witty and convincing way that won the big audience. Dopp told a Milwaukee newspaper man the day after the debate that Berger harrassed the audience and that caused his (Dopp's) defeat! A reflection of the debate was had in North Milwaukee, where the Democrats, who had rented the big hall of the town proposed to the Republicans and the Social-Democrats to make a sort of inter-party debate of it, but when the evening arrived, the Republicans and Democrats, taking fright at the result of the Waukesha debate, declared the meeting off!

The slander bearers of the Catholic church, who form what might be aptly called the Catholic A. P. A., are after all doing us a service, which they little suspect. In the initial days of the Republic, party, the county was flooded by insulating handbills, that were industriously circulated, with the heading: "Fremont, Free Labor, Free Love." The perpetrators of this outrageous fabrication persisted in their work until it became simply spent powder. The lying had become overdone; the people saw through it, and the lies recoiled on the heads of those who uttered them. It is always so. The calumniators of Social-Democracy are following in the footsteps of the clerical filth-throwers of Germany, who only succeeded in bespattering their own cause. They lost the trust of the people—and Social-Democracy went from one success to another, casting over three million votes in the last election, and showing the greatest percentage of gains just in the Catholic districts! The clerical filth-throwers in this country, with their lay assistants, will accomplish just what the early enemies of the Republican party and the anti-Socialists of Germany accomplished—more than nothing. We say more than nothing, advisedly, because unknowingly they are helping what they hope to retard.

Thomas W. Lawson, millionaire speculator and now nemesis of "frenzied finance," is taking the lid off of "eminently respectable" finance in great style. Here is his answer to a Philadelphia clergyman who doubted that insurance money was used for speculation by the big companies:

"Before my articles are finished I will make clear to all the actual conditions which surround, influence and control the life insurance companies and their methods in detail. The transaction in regard to the New York Security company and the New Hampshire Traction stocks was exactly as I set it forth. Your high position in the church should, in my opinion, peculiarly fit you to fairly answer my question, 'Is the New York Life telling a falsehood when it states that not a dollar of its assets is in stocks of any kind?' when I unqualifiedly state the fact that the New York Life owned the millions of the New York Security Company's stock; it paid $150 a share for them and it sold them to a syndicate of its own directors at $800 a share and they afterwards sold at over $1,300 per share and they still afterwards dropped to less than $600 a share. I did not wish to be unfair to the New York Life or I should have stated that I shall endeavor to show before my story is ended that at the time the New York Life parted with these shares to their own directors at $800 per share they were actually worth and could have been sold for hundreds of dollars per share higher."

The press despatches speak of Congressman Livernash of California as a Socialist. On the contrary Livernash is a Democrat.

The following Milwaukee despatch appears in the Chicago Chronicle: Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt carried Wisconsin by about 100,000 and Governor La Follette has been re-elected. Such is the indication from returns received at a late hour. At first it was thought the Republicans might lose on congressman by the election of Victor L. Berger, socialist in the fifth district. This district was very close. Later returns, however, indicate the re-election of Stafford, republican, in the fifth district, giving the republicans ten congressmen in the state, the same representation they had before.

Warrants are to be sworn out for election officials by the social democrats, who claim that the decision of Judge Belden in the election inspector case has been disregarded. He decided that the social democrats were entitled to the appointment of five election inspectors in the twentieth ward. When the socialists arrived at the booths with their men they found the places had already been filled by men who say they are not members of their party. The men were chosen by the other inspectors in each booth, who called them social democrats. Evidence has been gathered and suits will be directed against the Rose democracy.

Berger's chances were not brightened by a deal that was entered into between the corporation Republicans and the Democrats. They had yellow slips printed, headed: "To the Election Inspector: Ward: I desire to vote against the primary election law and FOR the following." Then followed the national Republican ticket and the state and county Democratic ticket, with the Republican corporation candidate for congress sandwiched in. Healers stood at the corners and gave every voter one where it was thought safe. Such tricks and deals have to be expected from our "eminently respectable" class when its business interests drives it into politics.

THE CHURCH GETTING RIGHT!

Workingman's Case at Last Getting a Hearing.

A significant sign at the church of the times, the attitude of the church toward sociology may be noted by us with interest.

At the recent convention of the Wisconsin Socialists, the drift of the church was toward Socialism. It was startling indeed to hear the preachers an arraignment of the present-day church for its inactivity in matters pertaining to the well-being of the toiling masses and the fact that the churches were and continued to be the maintenance of the capitalist system with its attendant democratic and autocratic

Prof. Graham Taylor of the Chicago University, in a highly dramatic manner, charged the church with idleness by its folded hands while the savage brutality was being enacted in our country today. While he did not entirely approve of the entire program of Socialism, Prof. Taylor stated that every charge made against the church by the Socialists was a plan of hypocrisy was literally in a fitting finale our own Comrade of Green Bay delivered a magnificent oration on the problem of the church in which he pointed out the leaven of the Communist. The old Simon-pure preacher fairly gasped with surprise and astonishment and said that his head at this, while the Socialists who were permitted to be present revelled in happiness in hearing the false ethical teachings of the church so brilliantly exposed and impeached.

Rev. Jacobs of the Milwaukee Seminary also had a message to his members of "the cloth." Mr. Jacobs, formerly assistant factory inspector in this state, gathered some very valuable statistics. He stated absolutely that no relief could come from the efforts of the

Ch. New Mr. Secretary.

Mrs. Mary Ann Fish, wife of the president of the Illinois Central Railroad, said recently in an interview: "I don't believe in being too democratic. We must have an American aristocracy. The American people will never cease to worship foreign nobility until they have a nobility of their own," etc., etc.

The great Madam Forehand do Stuyvesant-Walke With the gift of a veer, tells a wonderful tale Of some things you must do, which, from In the very near future, is bound to come true—

Mighty Tale? She says we are forming a blue-blooded class. A real Aristocracy—safe from the mass. Whom you may not delude, by your presence so vile. Unless you're a scion of the Oyster Bay style—

Noble Class! Then we won't have to travel to Europe for cars To marry our American millionaire girls; But we'll stay right at home; we'll have cars of our own; Yankee counts, dukes, and acrons, and all but a throne—

Right at Home! Then the Lady Gormillions once type-writer Will wed Beauvon Boston de Canned-stuff, the Earl; Let the world stand aghast! Old Democracy's past! And the goal that we longed for is captured at last—

Precious Pearl! And the Count Sausageasing von Slaughterhousepen Will marry Countess Magerine Omaha-ny; Let no common folks stare at the brood that they rear. At the full-blooded, blue-blooded, exclusive ten—

Upper Ten! Then the Great Baron Coalmines et Railroads-as-Well Will have Lady Rebates von Freight-rates, the belle; It will all be so nice, those who use coal and ice

Will kindly contribute their mite to the price— Aint that swell? But should the Plain People, so vulgar and wicked, By any mischance, vote the Socialist ticket.

Lady What would be foiled, after all that they toiled. And the counts, dukes, and earls, of their titles despoiled— What a Shame! A Socialist.

Cold Lunch Satirisms.

I have been trying long to understand why the average workingman can fail to see his degraded situation.

But I see it now. He does not like to behold himself in the position of a fool. He can heroically face poverty or a galling gun, but he turns away from seeing his own affinity. He has a more senseless pride than frankness and honesty. The future has a "crush" for his perversity. Just watch!

Multitudes of wage workers either like continuous toil and poverty or they haven't enough moral force to vote them down after the Socialist has shown them how and furnished them with straight workingman's ballot.

American workingmen have built 300,000 miles of railways worth 4 billion dollars and have swapped the whole outfit off to some capitalists

Private Ownership Compels "Overpopulation"

"Last Saturday evening, at the time of the bank closing, there was six hundred thousand dollars in B's bank. Money may not be very equally divided, but there is undeniable a large amount of wealth in our little town."—Iowa Republican Newspaper.

Four men—John, Frank, Charles and William—once lived in the planet Jupiter. These four men had the planet all to themselves. They were the only human beings in Jupiter.

As this planet is many times as large as our earth, you may consider that it was not over-populated at that time. But, as I shall presently show, it was really "over-populated" three times over.

John, Frank and Charles owned no property. The three of them did not possess so much as one ragged pair of trousers among them.

Luckily, the climate of Jupiter is quite warm. William owned Jupiter and everything upon it, in fee simple. His possessions included fifty millions of fat cattle and ten millions of immense warehouses filled with wheat. He possessed every other form of wealth in corresponding amount, and had secured foreign markets on other planets via the airship route.

William "Gave Employment" to John, Frank and Charles. Their "wages" were just sufficient to provide them with the minimum quantity of potatoes and sordidly necessary to sustain life. The wage scale, in short, had reached a point which for grub and clothes that some other workingmen have made. At any rate, the aforesaid American workingmen haven't got any railroads. It would be funny if it weren't so awfully foolish.

There are men who can see spots on the sun, rings around Saturn, the moons of Jupiter, all of which are millions of miles away; but there are millions of workingmen who can not see their nose-length into their own interests.

The very upright working ass, I mean the kind that go about on two legs, who have ears like a chimpanzee, are such extremely affectionate creatures that they love a millionaire better than their own lives, and the millionaire's family better than their own, for they will furnish a palace and thousand dollar poodle dogs for the nabob, dress his wife at the tune of ten thousand a year, furnish his daughters with fabulous finery set off with a million dollars worth of diamonds, while they rent rooking tenements for their families, let their wives slave in sweat shops and their children in factories that they may subsist in a hand to mouth fashion on adulterated groceries and wear calico and shoddy shoes.

We are nearing the great quadriennial scabbing contest where union men and non-union men can scalp themselves deeper than ever into the intolerable conditions against which they are complaining and striking. Go it, boys, curse and strike against the capitalist crew that is smashing your unions, driving workers from their jobs and families. Vote for 'em again. Git plenty this time!

A Tip for the Chronicle.

(These things are seen at night, then written down.)

Our telepa??? editor announces that the Chicago Chronicle will print the following editorial some day next week:

Now that election is over and employers will no longer employ more men than they really need in order to get their votes under threat of discharge, it behooves us to face the real situation. In spite of the fact that any man may find work who is willing to work, there are a great many idle men. These men represent the labor fund, so to speak, that employers may draw upon to break strikes or to start a new industry at a lower labor cost, thus stimulating competition.

The iron law of wages is immutable. When the wage fund is large nearly all men are employed. When it is small the number who rub along somehow on free lunch bought with a nickel obtained by begging, grows larger. There is no remedy for this, as most of the free lunch brigade well know, yet the situation is fraught with danger should the supply of nickels run short, owing to the fact that the givers of these nickels are sometimes short of funds. What we propose is, that the trusts and other employers contribute to a fund to supply the nickels. Men can be employed to stand around on the streets and give five cents to each "asker." Any one standing still on the street for a moment is sure to be accosted.

A word to the wise is sufficient. Such a plan will keep these men alive, to be ready when wanted by employers, and also keep them contented. A hungry element is a dangerous element. Every nickel given should be accompanied with a sermon on the beauties of republicanism, for a hungry man might get desperate and vote for any old thing.

Nemo.

Bourgeois revolutions, like those of the eighteenth century, rush onward rapidly from success to success, their stage effects outbid one another, men and things seem to be set in flaming brilliancy, ecstasy is the prevailing spirit; but they are short-lived, they reach their climax speedily, then society relapses into a long fit of nervous reaction before it learns how to appropriate the fruits of its period of excitement. Proletarian revolutions, on the contrary, such as those of the 19th century, criticize themselves constantly; constantly interrupt themselves in their own course; comes back to what seems to have been accomplished, in order to start over anew; scorn with earnest thoroughness the half measures, weaknesses and meannesses of their first attempts; seem to throw down their adversary only in order to enable him to draw fresh strength from the earth, and again to use up against them in more gigantic stature; constantly recoil in fear before the undefined monster magnitude of their own objects—until finally that situation is created which renders all retreat impossible, and the conditions themselves cry out: "Hic Rhodus, hic Saltus!" Here is the rose, now dance!

—Karl Marx.

A Parrysite Etc Regarding Strikes.

Here is a freak item that has been ground out and is being sent broadcast by one of those alleged labor news bureaus and probably comes from Parrysite sources:

"As a result of strikes it has been computed that there are idle men in the various trades all the time as follows: 22,000 cigarmakers, 51,000 brick and tile workers, 13,000 mill workers, 17,000 shoe workers, 10,000 leather workers, 268,000 lumber workers, 17,000 printers and 163,900 in other lines."

According to this about one-half of the cigarmakers are always on strike, about the same number of shoemakers, 40 per cent of the printers and about all the lumber workers. The object of printing this fool waste was intended to show the wastefulness of strikes; but the author perhaps never thought of estimating the numbers of men who are plunged into voluntary idleness by the capitalists' strikes, in laying off men, raising prices, restricting production, etc. It's always labor that must be blamed by these egotistical gentlemen, and labor is just chump enough to take the blame like a patient mule and then enrich and honor those who drive and curse it.—Cleveland Citizen.

William was looking over the emaciated carcasses of his late employees and companions. He chuckled gleefully as he recalled the damnable servility of the dead hordes. His self communings took a most jovial form. How easy it is for the rich to be jovial!

"Well," thought he, "the wealth of Jupiter may not be very equally distributed, but there is undeniable a large amount of wealth in the planet."

Had this earth but two inhabitants, it would still be "over-populated" if one owned all the earth and everything in it.

Chicago Evening Journal.—One of the surprising features locally was the vote cast for Eugene V. Debs, the candidate of the Socialist party. Debs was given considerably more than one third the number of votes cast for Judge Parker in the city of Chicago. It would seem that to be successful at the polls the Democratic party must depart from the paths of conservatism. The vote cast for Eugene V. Debs at this election is likely to have a decided bearing on the nominee of the party in 1908.

Would You

give Ten Dollars to have Socialism Come?

There are a thousand Socialists who have shown that they would do that very thing. They have organized themselves into a co-operative publishing house under the name of Charles H. Kerr & Company, the object of which is to circulate the standard literature of International Socialism at the lowest possible prices. No dividends are paid to any one, and no officer of the company receives more than ordinary wages. If any profit is made on a successful book, it is used to bring out more literature, such as will be of the greatest service to the Socialist movement. The only personal advantage of those subscribing for stock is the privilege of buying Socialist books at cost. Full particulars will be found in the booklet, "A Socialist Publishing House," a copy of which will be mailed to any one requesting it.

Four thousand shares remain to be subscribed, and the money thus realized will bring Socialist books within easy reach of every voter of America within the next few years. If you want to help, write us.

Comrade Christiansen has resigned as national committeeman from Nebraska, and a referendum is in progress to select his successor.

The Brinson-Wilshire debate in New York City, resulted in defeat for Brinson. Wilshire predicts that Brinson will become a Social-Democrat in time.

The Peoples' Party campaigners in Indiana and Illinois ran their campaigns on money furnished by Secy. Cortelyou of the Republican National Committee. Letters from Cortelyou to the men running the campaign were left by mistake in a printing office and were seen and commented on by a large number of men employed there. This gives us Cortelyou's measure.

It is certainly significant when a paper like the Boston Herald says of Debs' meeting at Faneuil Hall: "Never in recent years has such a gathering been seen in Faneuil Hall as that assembled yesterday afternoon to hear Eugene V. Debs. It is estimated that nearly 4,000 people were packed within the walls of the building, which can comfortably accommodate less than half that number, while outside were as many more clamoring and pushing and struggling for admission."

Comrade Arthur Kahn, of New York City, just returned from a tour through Europe, writes The Herald: "During the months of January, February and March I was in Germany and Austria and saw all the prominent party members. The first question I was asked by Bernstein, member of the German Reichstag, and by others in Austria, was 'How is the movement in America getting along and how is the movement in Milwaukee?' I told the comrades that the movement in America was getting along O. K., and that the movement in Milwaukee contains some of the finest of comrades, that the Social-Democratic Herald is the best Socialist paper published, and if we could elect Comrade Victor L. Berger to Congress we would have a map of the honesty, ability and forcefulness of the types of Bebel, Jaures, Vandervelde and Daszinsky. The comrades of Germany and Austria are watching Milwaukee with just as much interest and expectation as we do."

France has a law that permits women and children to only work ten hours a day. Capitalism is a monster of cannibalism.

Efforts are being made to unite the French Socialist parties, with perhaps some better chance of success than former attempts.

In a crowded meeting of working people at Zurich, Switzerland, the using of the military in strikes met with unanimous and determined condemnation.

"The upper crust and the lower crust are made of the same flour, though the ornamentation is all on top," remarks the London Labour Leader.

A coming election is now announced in Italy. The chamber is dissolved and the ministry starts out with a manifesto against Socialism. The general strike broke up the understanding between our party and the bourgeois democrats.

England still groans under its unemployed problem. At Leeds alone there are 3,000 registered unemployed. The number of paupers relieved in London on July 1st, showed an increase of 5,133 over the previous year.

The Rev. R. J. Campbell's brutal denunciation of the workingman has stirred up a good deal of comment in England. Last week the Rev. Campbell spoke at London and some of the best lights of the Independent Labour Party (Social-Democratic) were in his audience and were accorded a hearing. They acquitted themselves well and were given no little meed of applause. Campbell had as much as said that his opponents would descend to personalities, a false prophecy, as the large audience evidently noted.

SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD—BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

... judgment, excitement reached the breaking point.

Judge Belden Overrules Runge.

Mr. Runge appeared at 2 o'clock and pleaded that Judge Belden had no jurisdiction; that when another judge is called on the clerk must give five days' notice of trial.

"You have covered ground that is new to me, Mr. Runge," said Judge Belden. "I listened to your argument thinking I might hear something new. Cases you have supposed have no bearing. All parties are in court so there are no reason why hearing cannot proceed."

"Mr. Runge has filed an affidavit of prejudice against three judges and having obtained relief prayed for sooner than he expected is in no position to complain," suggested Attorney Thiel.

Judge Belden overruled Mr. Runge's objection to jurisdiction and then Mr. Runge said he objected to going to trial because there was not a full panel of jurors. The court then called attention to the fact that late Friday night, in the presence of Judges Halsey, Tarrant and Williams, Mr. Runge agreed to waive jury investigation, also showed there was a full panel of jurors present.

City Attorney Finally Withdraws.

"I've appeared specially and will proceed no further with this case," announced Mr. Runge.

At 3:30 o'clock he left the court room. Mr. Strehlow testified that he had necessary qualifications for office of assessor; that he had been nominated by the Social-Democratic party; that he had accepted, and that no election inspector in the Twentieth ward is a Social-Democrat. County Clerk Frank O. Phelps gave official testimony relative to the number of votes cast in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth precinct at the general election, 1902.

Receipts of Remittances for Subscriptions are acknowledged by the number on the wrapper. Separate receipts are never sent.

CHORUS WITH "LIBERTY BELLES" AT ALHAMBRA.

THE THEATER.

ALHAMBRA THEATER.
Harry B. Smith's charming musical comedy and Radium Ballet "The Liberty Belles" will appear at the Alhambra next week. "The Liberty Belles" has enjoyed a most prosperous career from its first presentation at the Madison Square Theater, New York, where it had a run of almost an entire season, until up to the present. It has return dates in all the cities each succeeding year.
Some $30,000 are invested and forty people are carried with the company.

BIJOU THEATER.
"Kellar"—the "only Kellar"— comes to the Bijou Theater for a week's engagement beginning tomorrow matinee. He claims no unnatural gift or superlative accomplishment other than which he has himself attained by long years of patient research and scientific prac-

PROP. KELLAR AT THE BIJOU.

tice. Paul Valadon, who for years has mystified the people of England an dall Europe with his performances at Egyptian Hall, London, is with Kellar this season. Besides Sunday matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

E. L. Snader, the excellent character actor who originated the role of Captain Teddy, the brave, big hearted, convivial detective in "Hearts Adrift" will be seen again this season in the same part when this successful melodramatic spectacle comes to the Bijou Nov. 13th.

STAR THEATER.

Bob Manchester's "Cracker Jacks" are coming back to the Star next week with a big new show from start to finish. It has a first part entitled "The Jolly Bachelor."
Don't miss it.

CRYSTAL THEATER.

The Crystal Theater makes another big bid for popularity next week by presenting "The Jeromes and six other star acts. The Crystal has shown Milwaukee when can be done in a low-priced, high-class show.

GRAND THEATER.

The crowds at the Grand Theater have been unusually large during the past week. The new bill includes the famous Texanna Sisters, who do an act that hardly seems possible.
Their fancy shooting is simply wonderful. The other acts are Fox &
Foxye, John A. West, Robert Allen
& Co., Willig & Larken, Lowe &
Rich.

Mr. Albert J. Welch has accepted a position as advertising solicitor for the Social-Democratic Herald.
 Mr. Welch has had several years' experience as a designer of high-class printing for advertisers, and he will be pleased to offer suggestions as to proper display, without extra cost to our patrons.

Rose's wall is really funny, especially when it is remembered that he started his political career in Milwaukee by populist fulminations against the corporations he now serves.

Democratic Ald. Stiglbauer was out working for Republican Candidate Dietrich on election day. But what of it? The politicians of the two capitalist parties are of the same stripe!

The lowest bid for printing the county election printing was $195.
 The highest, that of Keogh, was $980! Keogh has robbed the county so long that it has become second nature to him.

Comrade Isaac Peterson writes from Whitewater that members of the old party volunteered the opinion that Gertrude Breslan Hunt's lecture in that city was the greatest political address ever delivered there.

 introduced in the city council by the Social-Democratic aldermen:

Whereas, The Circuit Court of Milwaukee county has recently decided that the common council of the city of Milwaukee possesses no authority under the city charter to incorporate an eight-hour workday clause in contracts for public work; and

Whereas, The quality of labor performed by a workman or mechanic who is employed only a reasonable number of hours per day is superior to that of one who is obliged to work twelve or fourteen hours per day; and

Whereas, The City of Milwaukee as an employer of labor ought not to encourage the oppressive conditions to which most private employers compel their men to submit;

Resolved, By the Common Council that the City of Milwaukee hereby favors such legislation as will permit the common council of all cities within the state and all boards of supervisors to require that all employees directly employed by such cities or counties, shall be employed not to exceed eight hours per calendar day, except in cases of extraordinary emergencies; and also to permit such cities and counties to require as a necessary condition for the payment of public work awarded to contractors and sub-contractors that they shall furnish proof that they have neither required nor permitted any workman, laborer or mechanic to be employed thereupon for more than eight hours per calendar day, except in case of extraordinary emergencies, specifying in detail such emergencies.
